

My God Has But One Heart

Music and Lyrics: C Dyck

MM=90

1. Just - ice, peace and mer - cy flow in riv - ers far too wide for a
2. Think not, sad soul, that God may be com - posed of man - y parts; a sen - tence
3. Un - end - ing, bound - less char - ac - ter, all great - ness, vir - tue, strength, was work - ing
4. Just - ice, peace and mer - cy flow in riv - ers far too wide for a

5 hu - man thought to know, or to stem their tide. Fal - len hearts may seek to of fine words, not He: my God has but one heart. - Judge - ment, wrath, and love en - in those black - ened hours when Christ my sin did take. Mere fin - ger - plays, the gal - ax - 5 hu - man thought to know, or to stem their tide. Think not, sad soul, that God may 10 break the for - eign wat - ers' storm, but sin can - not stand in the twine in bound - less u - nit - y; God's heart is true, this is the ies, the fier - y hearts of stars; mere whis - pered words, the crash - ing 10 be com - posed of man - y parts! A sen - tence of fine words, not 15 wake where passed the up - God - head's form.

sign: He dies tow' - ring on - a tree.
seas, the the tow' - ring moun - tains are.
15 He: my God has but one heart.